

Art History: Photography Pre-Assignment - Due August 31st

Step One = Obtain a copy of the text.

THIS TEXT IS NO LONGER IN PRINT, BUT YOU CAN EASILY PURCHASE IT ONLINE.

Photography A Crash Course by Dave Yorath
ISBN 0-8230-0986-6

Step Two = Mark your calendar.

The class will meet at 6:30 via Zoom on the following Mondays in S121:
8/31, 9/14, 9/28, 10/12, 10/26, 11/9, 11/23, 12/7
The Zoom link will be sent via Mount email on 8/24.

Step Three = Log into the ART 234/510 Blackboard course site once it becomes available.

The Blackboard course site will normally turn on around 8/24. Review the syllabus and other documents found in the Syllabus link. Send any questions via email to John.Griffith@msj.edu.

Step Four = Watch American Experience A Century of Images

A really good way to introduce the History of Photography course is to watch the PBS video - American Experience A Century of Images.

It is a bit long, but it does a good job at looking at photography from multiple viewpoints. You will be making a virtual museum. Which topics on the video interest you the most?
